

of Southeast Los Angeles County

The Arc's Community Training Program

Presents

Understanding Your Benefits

Monday, February 2, 2009 @ 5:30-6:30 pm

Understanding Social Security Benefits for adults with intellectual and other developmental disabilities can be a difficult and complex task. The Arc of Southeast Los Angeles County is committed to helping consumers and their families learn about the different types of benefits that are offered, how to receive them, and how to properly manage them.

In this training, Felecita Moges, Benefits Coordinator for the Disability Resource Center, will discuss general issues regarding Social Security Benefits and common challenges facing families receiving these benefits. Nan Stoudenmire, Director of Outreach for The Arc's Center for Human Rights, will also be on-hand to assist families with ongoing needs beyond this training.

This is a great training opportunity for families with questions or individuals who simply want more information on this topic. We encourage you to attend.

This is a Free Training!

Light Refreshments will be served.

To enroll, contact Jeffrey Stephens, Training Coordinator at 562.803.1556 x262 or jeffrey@arcselac.org

The Arc Community Training Program provides professional education and instruction on various topics related to Intellectual and Other Developmental Disabilities to increase community awareness and support for individuals with disabilities. The Arc of Southeast Los Angeles County is a nonprofit organization serving individuals with intellectual and other developmental disabilities since 1956.

Arc of Southeast Los Angeles County
12049 Woodruff Ave, Downey, Ca 90241

www.arcselac.org

“...What Benefits am I entitled to?”

“...How do I apply for Benefits?”

“...Do I need to report my income to Social Security?”

“...Will Community Employment effect my Benefits?”