

Arc's Community Training Program

Presents

Center for Human Rights

Information Meeting and Advocacy Training

Monday, March 2, 2009 @ 5:30-6:30 pm

Southeast Banquet and Conference Center, 9545 Washburn Rd, Downey, CA 90242

Please join us to learn about Arc's Center for Human Rights and how Arc Families and the community can be connected to greater resources to serve individuals with developmental disabilities.

The Arc's Center for Human Rights provides help, support and guidance to individuals with intellectual and other developmental disabilities and their families. Our staff are positioned to assist you by carefully listening to your needs and helping you find the right resources for you and your family member. Information offered on the following areas:

Social Security Services
Individual Education Plans
Medical and Dental Services
Employment
Regional Centers
Housing/Placement

Adult Protective Services
Transition Services
Senior Planning
Human Services Association
Department of Rehabilitation
Individual Program Plans

Our staff will assist you with advocating for your rights and exploring appropriate options to get you the services you are entitled.

This is a Free Training!

Light Refreshments will be served.

To enroll, contact Jeffrey Stephens, Training Coordinator at 562.803.1556 x262

The Arc Community Training Program provides professional education and instruction on various topics related to Intellectual and Other Developmental Disabilities to increase community awareness and support for individuals with disabilities. The Arc of Southeast Los Angeles County is a nonprofit organization serving individuals with intellectual and other developmental disabilities since 1956.

Arc's Center for Human Rights
9555 Washburn Rd, Downey, Ca 90242

www.arcelac.org